Bsnl mobile recharge offers kerala

Founded on 15 September 2000, BHARAT Sanchar Nigam Limited is India's largest telecommunications operator in Delhi. The company offers pan-Indian telecommunications services, except in Mumbai and Delhi major cities. The company, which is the fifth largest provider, also offers links to the government's major digital initiatives, as well as to departments and sector units across the country. The telco has a robust telecommunications network and infrastructure spread over every nook and corner of the country. It has 700,000 kilometres of fibreglass networks spread across the country. As of March 31, 2017, it had more than 10 million home broadband users. Under the BSNL Cellone brand, GSM offers mobile services and solutions such as MPLS, P2P and internet leased lines for corporate customers. The telco also has an extensive optical fiber based network, and allows Internet access services through dial-up connections such as prepaid and postpaid such as NetOne and broadband under DataOne. It also offers IPTV service and Voice and Video Over Internet Protocol (VVoIP), in addition to MPLS-VPN, VSAT, VoIP, in service and FTTH. The government-controlled telco has created a multi-gigabit, multi-protocol convergent IP infrastructure that offers convergent services such as voice, data and video on the same backbone and broadband access network. The company, as a social commitment, encourages the development of telecommunications services in remote, hilly and tribal areas of the country. BSNL employs nearly 200,000 people between 2017 and 2018. Founded on 15 September 2000, BSNL (Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited) is India's largest telecommunications operator in Delhi.
